Arden K. Miner has been promoted to vice president - underwriting, support and development of Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc.

Miner returns to parent company ATG after having spent the last five years in the top position at ATG subsidiary, ATG LegalServe, where she oversaw the management of day-to-day operations, defined the overall corporate mission, and developed new directions for the business. Under Miner's leadership, ATG LegalServe acquired a local process-serving company, added new services, relocated, and almost doubled in size during 2016.

An independent closer for ATG since the late 1990s, Miner joined the ATG staff in 2002 as an attorney in the underwriting department, which she later managed along with the escrow department.

"We greatly appreciate the strong problem-solving, customer relations and long-term planning skills Arden brings to her new position," said Peter J. Birnbaum, ATG president and CEO. "With significant experience in the real estate closing process, title insurance underwriting, title operations, and agent support from her past roles at ATG, she will serve a vital role in helping us achieve our mission."

Miner has served on the board of directors of the Illinois Land Title Association, is a member of the Illinois State and Chicago Bar Associations, and is a licensed private detective. She also is a past chairperson for the CBA real property law committee and vice chair of the UPL and multi-disciplinary law committees, as well as a frequent speaker for the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education and ATG legal education seminars.

Miner has a J.D. from Thomas M. Cooley Law School, Lansing, Mich.; an MBA from the Keller Graduate School of Management, Chicago; a teaching certificate from Northeastern University, Chicago; and a B.S. in psychology from Loyola University of Chicago.
