

Chicago law school selects ATG for institutional partner award

October 23, 2017 | Staff Writer

Chicago-Kent College of Law will present Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc. with the Institutional Partner Award at its annual dinner on Nov. 16, 2017.

ATG President and CEO Peter J. Birnbaum will accept the award which recognizes a law firm or corporation which has had a significant impact on Kent College, its students or alumni.

"ATG is honored to receive this award, which affirms our 37-year relationship and commitment to the school. I am so proud to be an alum of the school. Chicago-Kent has consistently been the leader in trial advocacy, intellectual property and in technology under the leadership of Dean Krent. I look forward to the school continuing its rich tradition of innovation." Birnbaum said in a statement.

