ATG LegalServe employee gets promotion, elected association president

Industry News
Wednesday, April 27, 2016

Robert G. Rusch has been promoted to vice president-operations for ATG LegalServe, a subsidiary of Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc. The full-service legal process servicing company offers litigation support to lawyers and law firms throughout Chicago and beyond.

Rusch also has been elected president of the Associated Detectives & Security Agencies of Illinois, Inc. (ADSAI), a trade organization that develops and encourages the practice of high standards of personal and professional conduct among those who work in the investigative and security industry.

ATG President and CEO Peter Birnbaum said: "We congratulate Bob on his promotion to vice president-operations and his new ADSAI leadership position. With his extensive experience and knowledge, Bob serves a vital role in helping us achieve our mission to be the premier process service company benefiting today's litigator."

Since 2009, Rusch has served as ATG LegalServe's operations manager. Prior to that, he owned and operated Legal Assistants, Inc., for seven years, during which he learned the business from the inside out, including process serving, court filing and court records searching. A licensed private detective, Rusch has served more than 5,000 papers and has extensive knowledge of state and federal court systems, as well as the mortgage foreclosure process from filing to service of process.

Rusch earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business accounting in 1993 from Eastern Illinois University in Charleston. He resides in Chicago's Beverly neighborhood with his wife Becky and their four children.
